

CKCU-FM 93.1 Ottawa's Community Radio Station at Carleton University announcing:

CKCU Literary News Literatures in Europe Today

News items / Features / Interviews

Literary life in Europe: What's new?

A <sup>new</sup> SHOW ABOUT CREATIVE WRITING IN EUROPE bringing you informed reports on ►

- Writers and their recent works as reviewed in Europe
  - Regional differences (cultures / languages / borders)
  - Historical relations (traditions / changes)
- Books (poetry, fiction, drama, essay) in European media
- Prizes (national, international award-winning authors)
- Themes, genres and styles of contemporary writing
- New media (lit. blogs, lit. forums) and creative writing
- Circumstances of commemorative celebrations
- Inter- / national literature festivals (theatre, poetry)
- Inter- / national book fairs (London, Paris, Frankfurt, etc.)
- Culture and literary life in major European cities

Starting this fall, the program will be heard live at CKCU-FM 93.1 (time to be announced), on live stream as mp3-audio and as podcast. The host is HANS G. RUPRECHT, moderating this innovative radio show in collaboration with correspondents and members of the multicultural community of Carleton University in Ottawa, Canada.
Info: www2.carleton.ca/litnews/ Contact: <radio.ckcu.litnews@gmail.co>